

Festival Organizers:

Media Lab Cyland

St. Petersburg Branch of the National Center for Contemporary Art

Saint-Petersburg Arts Project

Festival Curators:

Anna Frants, Marina Koldobskaya, Sofia Kudryavtseva, Sergey Teterin, Victoria Ilyushkina.

FESTIVAL EDUCATION PROGRAMState Hermitage*YOUTH EDUCATION CENTER

NOVEMBER 21 3:30 P.M.

JAN-PETER E.R. SONNTAG (GERMANY).

VIDEO LECTURE “BORDERS AND INFINITY”

Peter Sonntag is an international star of media art. The lecture is dedicated to art in the age of high technologies. The artist's computer talks with the audience together with him, simultaneously carrying out a slide show. For the most part, the lecture consists of a dialogue with listeners in the improvisation mode.

The lecture is addressed to everybody who is interested in media art.

NOVEMBER 23 5:00 P.M.

LYDIA KAVINA (UK).

WORKSHOP “TECHNIQUE OF PLAYING AND APPLICATIONS IN MUSIC OF XXI CENTURY”

The international star of modern music will talk about surprising aspects of uses of Theremin – a mysterious, infinitely versatile and invariably current instrument invented by the brilliant Russian engineer Lev Termen.

The workshop is meant for musicians and music lovers.

NOVEMBER 24 5:00 P.M.

PINKPINKSORBET AKA XPERTINA MARILU (AUSTRIA).

SECOND LIFE ODDITORIUM / KYHCTKAMEPA B SECOND LIFE

PinkPinkSorbet curates and coordinates the media lab CYLAND in the internet space Second Life. During the workshop, the artist will conduct a tour of the virtual exhibition that she organized specially for Cyberfest 2010 and tell how such projects are organized and how one could participate in them.

The workshop is addressed to everybody who is interested in the web art.

NOVEMBER 26 3:30 P.M.

DANIIL FRANTS (NEW YORK – ST. PETERSBURG).

WORKSHOP FOR CHILDREN “HUMANIZING ROBOTS”

This workshop is conducted by Daniil Frants, a 12-year-old boy. The workshop teaches all kinds of working with technologies and communication skills. Its participants will experiment with small toy robots: disassemble them, study their internal structure and revive them again.

The workshop is for children from 9 to 12 years of age.

Admission is free.

Address: Youth Center of the State Hermitage

(Premises of the Youth Center in the Winter Palace; left from the main lobby, up the staircase).

Gallery of Experimental Sound GES

NOVEMBER 21 7:00 P.M.

LECTURE BY SERGEY TETERIN (PERM, RUSSIA).

The lecture about the first heroes and gurus of electronic music. During the lecture, there will be a demonstration of fragments from the documentary OHM+ dedicated to Robert Moog. The film contains over two hours of rare video recordings, interviews with video artist and documentations of performances.

Admission is free.

Address: 10 Pushkinskaya. Entrance from 53 Ligovskiy, second annex.

Art Hall POLIGRAF

NOVEMBER 19 6:00 P.M. PRESS CONFERENCE
7:00 P.M. FESTIVAL'S OPENING CEREMONY

This year, the CYBERFEST Festival opens for public a new large exhibition space in St. Petersburg – Art Hall POLIGRAF. Interactive objects and media installations, 2 international video programs, media performances of over 40 Russian and foreign creators.

The exhibition is opened from 19 to 26 of November

Hours of work: 5:00 P.M. to 21:00 P.M.

Admission is free.

Address: Quay of River Karpovka, bldg. No. 1

(From the metro station Petrogradskaya down Bolshoi Prospekt. P.S.

Left turn towards Karpovka, cross the bridge over Karpovka,

Right turn on the quay p to building No. 1, the factory building of Lenpoligrafmash across from the Botanic Garden).

State Museum of History of St. Petersburg

PETER AND PAUL FORTRESS

Dungeon and Postern of the Gosudarev Bastion

NOVEMBER 20 4:00 P.M. OPENING OF THE EXPOSITION

The exposition showcases a special program of audio-video-installations in situ. Visitors will find themselves in the atmosphere of acoustic and visual paradoxes in one of the most mysterious historical spaces in the city.

The exhibition is opened from 20 to 26 of November

Hours of work: 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M.

Admission is free.

Address: Peter and Paul Fortress,

Dungeon and Postern of the Gosudarev Bastion

(10 minutes by foot from the metro station Gorkovskaya through the park)

BOREY Gallery

NOVEMBER 20 6:00 P.M. OPENING NIGHT

The exhibition at the Borey, the oldest gallery in St. Petersburg, unites renowned media artists from 8 countries (USA, Germany, Japan, France, Canada, New Zealand, Italy, Poland).

Audio-visual projects, media performance, interactive installations.

NOVEMBER 24 16:00 MEDIA PERFORMANCE “LANDFILL/DIS-(P)LAY WASTE”

Authors: Katherine Liberovskaya (Canada) and Keiko Uenishi (Japan).

The exhibition is opened from 20 to 26 of November

Hours of work: 12:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.

Admission is free.

Address: 58, Liteyny Prospekt

Kuryokhin Modern Art Center

NOVEMBER 25 at 8:00 P.M. CONCERT “WIND ROSE 01”

This year, the festival will see the premiere of the multimedia concert of the international theremin star Lydia Kavina (UK) based on the opera of the famous composer Iraidia Yusupova. Time travels from digital to analog on mechanical machines and on wings of imagination.

Lydia Kavina – Theremin 1

Vladimir Kitlyar – Theremin 2

Dmitriy Shubin – Theremin 3

Sasha Zhitinskaya – Theremin 4, Synthesizer

Sergey Teterin – Video Projection

Special Guest of the Project – DJ Shahash

FESTIVAL SPECIAL PROJECT “JITNEY”

Authors: Marina Alekseeva and Boris Kazakov.

All those who come to the concert will be able to see the video-jitney. What the viewers will see in the windows, instead of passengers, is the video sequence that is transmitted outside from inside.

November 25 at 8:00 P.M.

Admission is free.

Address: 93, Sredniy Pr. V.O.